HEAD MASTER'S MESSAGE 2013

Dear EHS and BLS families,

I like the phrase "Are you ready for some football" especially when we know that The English High School and the Boston Latin School football players cannot wait to play on our traditional Thanksgiving Game.

Our football players are not going to be alone on the field as many of their classmates have also been preparing for this BIG DAY – For the first time, our new mascot the "Blue & Blue Eagle" is going to be on the field. The marching band has been rehearsing long hours, art class students have created a special banner, and cheerleaders are going to put their hearts in leading our audience in amazing cheers.

The English High School faculty, staff, partners, parents, and the Alumni Association members wish that The English High School football players lead us into victory!

Happy Thanksgiving,

Ligia B. Noriega-Murphy
Head Master

Go Blue & Blue Eagles!

Congratulations
Temitope Ashorobi!!!

Every day I count and wait
for a day like today.

I sat quietly watching you growing in strength and in knowledge from day to day,
hour to hour, and minute to minute.

I witness the rush hours..... You leaving the house early in the mornings and coming back home late into the evening hours.

Last year, I asked God to see my daughter through her senior year at Boston Latin.

I am so proud of the young woman you have become.

Keep up the good job!!!

Love, Mom

BOSTON PUBLIC SCHOOLS

BOSTON LATIN SCHOOL
FOUNDED IN 1635

On Thanksgiving, as we gather at historic Harvard Stadium for one of our favorite traditions, the annual Latin vs. English football game, we reflect on the historic relationship between the oldest school in America and the oldest high school in America, both schools part of the proud tradition of public education and educational innovation for which Boston is known. Preparing students for college and careers, Latin and English have challenged each other over the years academically as well as in sports, and each must continue to challenge students to meet the demands of the 21st century.

Exceptional sportsmanship has ever been demonstrated on and off the field by students of both schools, and the game provides an opportunity for faculty, alumni, students, parents and friends to gather and to reconnect and to demonstrate their pride in their schools.

We thank the coaches, players, cheerleaders and steppers, band directors and members, faculty and students who make today's community celebration extraordinary! We thank Harvard University for continuing to support Boston school athletics, and today's contest in particular. We thank families of both schools for sharing Thanksgiving Day with us!
